

Conference Prague 2018

"Long-distance Passenger Transport: Geography, Infrastructure, Competition"

Thursday, May 24, 2018

7:00 pm

Get together drink in the old-town Prague restaurant "U Pinkasu"

Friday, May 25, 2018

9:00 am

Registration of participants and welcome coffee – Room H212 (2nd floor)

9:20 am to 11:30 am

Opening and I. conference block (keynote speeches) – Room H212 (2nd floor)

9:20 am

Opening

9:30 am

C. Nash (ITS Leeds, Masaryk University Brno): Liberalisation of the long distance passenger market in Great Britain.

10:10 am

Y. Crozet (University of Lyon): Regulation of long distance passenger market in France.

10:50 am

Z. Tomeš, M. Jandová (Masaryk University Brno): Open access passenger rail services in Central Europe.

11:30 am

Lunch

1:00 pm to 3:00 pm

II. conference block – Room H212 (2nd floor)

1:00 pm

A. Vigren (Swedish National Road and Transport Research Institute): Competition in Swedish Passenger Railway.

1:40 pm

P. Beria (Politecnico di Milano): Evolving long-distance passenger services. From planned monopolies to deregulated competition.

2:20 pm

C. Desmaris (University of Lyon): The reform of passenger rail in Switzerland: more performance without competition.

3:00 pm

Break

3:30 pm to 5:30 pm

III. conference block – Room H212 (2nd floor)

3:30 pm

M. Horňák (Comenius University in Bratislava): Trains vs Buses: Long-distance transport in Slovakia.

4:10 pm

M. Król (Warsaw School of Economics), J. Taczanowski (Jagellonian Uni. Krakow): On the intersection of the rail open access and the bus passenger services in Poland.

5:00 pm

End of the conference.

5:30 pm to 7:00 pm

Scenic route through Prague in a historic tram

7:00 pm to 11:00 pm

Conference dinner in the restaurant "MANÚ Risto & Lounge"

Saturday, May 26, 2018

10:00 am

Facultative Prague sightseeing tour